1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims are directed to a judicial exception; as such, pursuant to the Interim Guidelines on Patent Eligible Subject Matter (MPEP 2106), the claims must have either physical transformation and/or a useful, concrete and tangible result. The claims fail to include transformation from one physical state to another. Although, the claims appear useful and concrete, there does not appear to be a tangible result claimed. Merely “generating data” as in claim 8 is not sufficient to constitute a tangible result, since the outcome of the “generating data” step is an abstract value that is not being claimed as being used in a disclosed practical application nor as claimed is it made available in such a manner that its usefulness in a disclosed practical application can be realized. Data, as such, is only abstract information, and the claims do not, for example, provide the necessary steps to make this abstract data tangible, such as using it for some “real world” process to accomplish some “real world” tangible result, or to communicate it in some tangible manner to a user. As such, the subject matter of the claims is not patent eligible.

Claims 9-11, dependent from claim 8, are similarly rejected because none of these claims add to their parent claim the required practical tangible application or make the outcome available in such a tangible manner that its usefulness in a disclosed practical application can be realized.

3. As set forth in the previous office action, claims 1, and 3-6 are allowable, and claims 8-11 contain subject matter which is allowable over the art of record and would be allowable were the rejection under 35 USC 101 above overcome.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
